

Charity Adams Earley
440 Shoup Mill Rd
Peggy Burks

SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

The Charity Adams Earley, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) now ESSA (Every Student Succeeds Act) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during school year 2017-2018

School Responsibilities

The Charity Adams Earley will:

- 1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

by implementing district approved reading and math adoption with fidelity by highly qualified staff.

- 2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:

November 6-10th and February 5, 2017

Mission Statement

To equip our students to achieve success in a global society by implementing an effective and rigorous curriculum with fidelity.

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress.

Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

We shall provide interim grade reports every 4 ½ weeks and quarterly grade reports every 9 weeks

4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

Staff is available during planning times, by appointment, and also after school by appointment.

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

We need volunteers to help monitor playground, lunchtimes, and prepare weekly folders.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance.
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Monitoring amount of television their children watch.
- Volunteering in my child's classroom.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
- Serving, to the extent possible, on school advisory groups, such as being the Title I, Part A parent representative on the school's School Improvement Team, the Title I Parent Involvement Advisory Committee, the District wide Committee Education Council, the School Support Team or other school advisory or district and school parent groups.

Student Responsibilities (revise as appropriate to grade level)

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need to.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
- Give to my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.

Mission Statement

To equip our students to achieve success in a global society by implementing an effective and rigorous curriculum with fidelity.

Additional Required School Responsibilities (requirements that schools must follow, but optional as to being included in the school-parent compact)

The Charity Adams Earley will:

1. Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's parental involvement policy, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
2. Involve parents in the joint development of any schoolwide program plan, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
3. Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's participation in Title I, Part A programs, and to explain the Title I, Part A requirements, and the right of parents to be involved in Title I, Part A programs. The school will convene the meeting at a convenient time to parents, and will offer a flexible number of additional parental involvement meetings, such as in the morning or evening, so that as many parents as possible are able to attend. The school will invite to this meeting all parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs (participating students), and will encourage them to attend.
4. Provide information to parents of participating students in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon the request of parents with disabilities, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that parents can understand.
5. Provide to parents of participating children information in a timely manner about Title I, Part A programs that includes a description and explanation of the school's curriculum, the forms of academic assessment used to measure children's progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
6. On the request of parents, provide opportunities for regular meetings for parents to formulate suggestions, and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. The school will respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.
7. Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the State assessment in at least math, language arts and reading.
8. Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in section 200.56 of the Title I Final Regulations (67 Fed. Reg. 71710, December 2, 2002).

Mission Statement

To equip our students to achieve success in a global society by implementing an effective and rigorous curriculum with fidelity.

Optional School Responsibilities

To help build and develop a partnership with parents to help their children achieve the State's high academic standards, the Charity Adams Earley will:

1. Recommend to the district, the names of parents of participating children of Title I, Part A programs who are interested in serving on the School Support Teams.
2. Notify parents of the school's participation in Early Reading First, Reading First and Even Start Family Literacy Programs operating within the school, the district and the contact information.
3. Work with the district in addressing problems, if any, in implementing parental involvement activities in section 1118 of Title I, Part A.
4. Work with the district to ensure that a copy of the school's written complaint procedures for resolving any issue of violation(s) of a Federal statute or regulation of Title I, Part A programs is provided to parents of students and to appropriate private school officials or representatives.

_____	_____	_____
School Administrator	Parent(s)	Student
_____	_____	_____
Date	Date	Date'

(PLEASE NOTE THAT SIGNATURES ARE REQUIRED)

Mission Statement

To equip our students to achieve success in a global society by implementing an effective and rigorous curriculum with fidelity.

Mission Statement

To equip our students to achieve success in a global society by implementing an effective and rigorous curriculum with fidelity.