1. Any full time certified classroom Dayton Public School teacher may apply for a grant.
2. Applications may be submitted by individuals, grade level teams, or school committees.
3. Awards may be made up to $500 for each project approved. Monies must purchase only items not normally paid for by DPS. Projects must be completed during the 2018-19 school year. Winners/grantees will receive DPS purchase orders for supplies listed in the proposal from their school's treasurer.

7. The evaluation criteria are based upon the goal of the proposal, the project's relevance to the goal, and the value of student progress achieved by the project. Extra points may be earned (see accompanying TIPS).
8. Grant recipients will be required to submit the project evaluation and receipts at the end of the grant period and submit photos of student participation.
9. Grant money cannot be used for monetary rewards for students, salaries, professional development or workshop fees.
