Eastmont Park Elementary School opened in 1956, serving grades kindergarten through eight.

In 1982, the school served grades K-3 for the next seven years, then became a K-6 school.

Eastmont was formerly known as an environmental sciences magnet school.

The school mascot is the cardinal.

Eastmont’s first principal, Marcella Smoot, served for 14 years – from 1956 to 1971.
