ITEM VII

I recommend approval of the Resolution naming the Press Box at Welcome Stadium.

Rationale
After a meeting with members of the Dayton Community and members of the staff of Dayton Public Schools, a recommendation is being made for the naming of the Press Box at Welcome Stadium to be the "Denney-Bayless Press Box."

The naming of the Press Box at Welcome Stadium is to honor both Robert Denney and Martin Bayless for their many contributions to the Dayton Public Schools.

Robert Denney was a student at Irving Elementary School where he played basketball and football, and was a graduate of Roosevelt High School where he participated in football, basketball, track and cross-country. Mr.
Denney was a graduate of Central State University. Mr. Denney served the district from 1962 to 1998; he was a teacher at Cornell Heights Elementary School (1962-1965) and Roosevelt High School (1965 - 1971), served as an athletic coach winning many championships on the playing field and in the gymnasium, served as an assistant principal (1971-1978) at Roosevelt High School, Patterson Cooperative High School, Fairview High School and Dunbar High School, then served as acting principal at Belmont High School (1978-1980) and as Principal at Belmont High School from 1980-1983, and then served as the Acting Athletic Director from 1983-1984 and served as Athletic Director of Dayton Public Schools from 1984-1998; and retired from the district in 1998. Mr.
Denney was again rehired to serve as the Athletic Director from April 2003 to February 2005. Mr. Denney served our district for over 38 years providing excellence as a teacher, coach, and administrative leader in the schools and athletic arena. Mr. Denney taught his students to be winners in life. The Southwest District Athletic Board established a scholarship in recognition of Mr. Denney’s contributions to athletics.

Martin Bayless, Sr. was a student under Principal, Robert Denney, and graduated from Belmont High School in 1980, where he played football. He went to Bowling Greene State University and was a walk-on player for the football team. He then played NFL football for the St. Louis Cardinals, Buffalo Bills, San Diego Chargers, Kansas City Chiefs, and the Washington Redskins. A veteran coach with more than 26 years of experience in the professional ranks, Bayless was named as the defensive coordinator/special teams coordinator for the 2011 season after just completing his second season in the UFL with the Sacramento Mountain Lions as special teams coordinator/secondary coach having served as the defensive backs coach with the California Redwoods in 2009.
In 2010 special teams were a bright spot in Sacramento where in his first year as the special team coordinator Bayless’ units set several UFL league records. During a 14-year NFL career, Bayless played in 192 games and started 153 games making 1,186 tackles, 11.5 sacks, and 12 career interceptions. A college football standout at Bowling Green, he was inducted into the school’s Hall of Fame in 1989 and still ranks second in the NCAA record books for career interceptions with 27. Bayless retired from playing in 1998 and then moved to the Buffalo Bills’ front office as director of player development / special projects. He began his coaching career at Castle Park High School in San Diego and then at to the University of North Carolina as a coaching intern.
Bayless was defensive backs and special teams coach with the Barcelona Dragons and Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe for the 2003 season before joining the Carolina Panthers as quality control/defensive assistant for the team’s Super Bowl XXXVIII season. Bayless also coached in Oakland, serving as special teams assistant/defensive assistant for the Raiders from 2004-05 were both of the top special teams performers were pro bowl punter Shane Lechler and kicker Sebastian Janikowski. Bayless also had the opportunity to work with two of the NFL’s elite corners in Nnamdi Asomugha and Charles Woodson. He established the Martin Bayless Free Football Camp in 1986 in his hometown of Dayton, Ohio and more than 140,000 youths have since participated in the camps which span from Ohio to California. His camps have produced three Heisman Trophy Winners (Reggie Bush, Ricky Williams and Rashaan Salaam) and two first overall picks in the NFL Draft (Alex Smith and Dan Wilkinson). For his accomplishments both on and off the field, Bayless was voted San Diego Chargers NFL Man of the Year in 1990 and 1991 and the Kansas City Chiefs NFL Man of the Year in 1996 and was honored in 2008 with the San Diego Hall of Champions’ Ernest H. Wright Sr. Humanitarian Award.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Dayton Board of Education of the Dayton City School District, Montgomery County, Ohio, that the Board of Education accepts the recommendation of the Superintendent and approves the naming of the Press Box at Welcome Stadium the "Denney-Bayless Press Box."
