

Rules of the Road

Revised June 5, 2018

1. No smoking, eating, or drinking on RTA buses.
2. While riding RTA you are prohibited from failing to wear clothing that appropriately covers your body and undergarments so as not to offend others. Additionally, failing to wear shoes and shirts or wearing apparel that has obscene language or gestures or racial, religious, sexual, ethnic or other slurs or comments that are likely to create a disturbance or otherwise disturb the peace of other persons.
3. Customers must use headsets when listening to audio devices.
4. Customers are asked to refrain from using cell phones while on RTA buses.
5. No profanity, disruptive, threatening or abusive behavior.
6. No vandalism of RTA property including littering.
7. Do not stick hands, arms, head or objects out of windows.
8. Keep aisles clear; strollers must be folded and stowed within the seat area.
9. Do not stand in front of the standee line.
10. Do not open windows while climate control systems are in use.
11. Keep feet off seats, and do not take up more than one seat.
12. Bicycles must be functional and able to be secured on bike rack.
13. Senior or disabled passengers must show RTA's reduced fare card to receive the discounted fare.
14. Customers must vacate designated seating areas for older passengers and riders with disabilities as requested by RTA operators.
15. Customers may not carry onto an RTA vehicle any item which could cause injury or damage to RTA riders or property, including hazardous materials such as gasoline, propane tanks and car batteries, except lawfully carried and possessed firearms.
16. Customers must maintain personal hygiene so as not to offend fellow patrons.
17. Ski masks and hoodies must be removed upon boarding the bus.

Facilities Code of Conduct

Revised June 5, 2018

This facility is owned and operated by the Greater Dayton Regional Transit Authority (RTA). The RTA has enacted this Code of Conduct to ensure a safe, convenient and enjoyable experience for customers using our transit services. The Code of Conduct establishes reasonable expectations with regards to behavior for all persons on RTA property. Any person's failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may result in removal from the property, prohibition from RTA's facilities and services (including buses) in the future, criminal prosecution, and further penalty as outlined in Ohio Revised Code 306.99.

WHILE YOU ARE ON RTA PROPERTY, YOU ARE PROHIBITED FROM:

1. Carrying or possessing weapons of any kind, except lawfully carried and possessed firearms.
2. Engaging in any act of violence or intimidation including fighting, use of physical force or threatening any person physically, verbally, or otherwise.
3. Horseplay.
4. Destroying, damaging or defacing RTA property or the property of its customers and tenants.
5. Loitering, delaying or lingering about the property or its exterior.
6. Littering, including spitting on property.
7. Smoking, except in clearly designated areas.
8. Using obscene language or gestures, racial slurs, or religious, sexual, ethnic or other slurs or comments that are likely to create a disturbance or otherwise disturb the peace of other persons.
9. Obstructing facility entrances or interfering with the free flow of pedestrian traffic.
10. Possessing an open alcoholic beverage or public intoxication.
11. Possessing, selling, or using any illicit or illegal drugs or related paraphernalia.
12. Gambling.
13. Running, riding a bike, skating or skateboarding on the property.
14. Making or causing noise loud enough, including radios and cell phones, to disturb the peace of other persons.
15. Soliciting, picketing, handbilling, distributing, or selling materials on RTA property without the prior written consent of RTA.
16. Failing to wear clothing that appropriately covers your body and undergarments so as not to offend others. Additionally, failing to wear shoes and shirts or wearing apparel that has obscene language or gestures or racial, religious, sexual, ethnic or other slurs or comments that are likely to create a disturbance or otherwise disturb the peace of other persons.
17. Wearing ski masks, face masks, hoodies or any item that conceals identity while inside any RTA facility as determined by RTA staff.
18. Engaging in any unlawful activity or any behavior that is disruptive to RTA's business or offensive to the general public.
19. Carrying or transporting animals, except for identified service animals or those in appropriate carriers.

This Code of Conduct will be strictly enforced. Any person who has been denied access to any RTA facility may appeal that decision to the RTA Chief Executive Officer by providing written notice of appeal within 14 days of removal: 4 South Main Street, Dayton, OH 45402.